"Wheat," 70c a bushel; "worth" $1.00 to $1.25, or you don't.

Messrs. Putup, More, Margin & Co. also offer Corn for 30c a bushel; "worth" 64c, or you don't.

Pork, $10.25 (say, boys, what IS pork worth); "worth" $15, or you don't.

Here Is a "Musical Instrument."

A Dry-Goods "Lyre" that sells Clothing.

How him throw and sing his old chestnut song:

Messrs. Cambric & Sheeting, N. G. Cor. State and Franklin-sts., offer Sky-Blue Ginghams at 5c; "worth" 14c, or you don't. Red Bannockburn Stripes, 12½; worth 47½, or you don't.

Boulevard Plaids (no Capuchin, with yellow edge, 25c; "worth" $2.00, or you don't.

Pink Hose, lace heel, 25c; "worth" all you can get for them, or you don't.

Bright Green Kid Gloves, with three thumbs, at $1; "worth" $2, or you don't. We "title" to get $2 and you wouldn't pay it, so we marked them down to $1.

The "reason" why we sell all our goods at less than HALF what they are "worth" (in the papers) is because "most" ALL the stores on State-st. sell their goods that way and "make" "great" money. We have put in a Children's Clothing Department, and because our money is "stronger" than WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO.'S we sell Boys' Suits for $1.50 worth $3, WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO.'S price. Boys' Suits for $4 that the slow WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO. ask $7.50 for. But our "money" is "stronger," our buyers are "well-pullers" ("we are, too"), or you don't.

So our Boys' Clothes are sold for HALF what they are "worth"—that is we "say" so, and we wouldn't "lye" for no "dollar." We only charge $3 for our "lye"; worth $6, or you don't.

WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO. keep a store, Corner Clark and Madison, but they cannot "DO MUCH," for they sell their goods for "ALL" they are worth; "TRUE," they are WORTH the PRICE, but WILLOUGHBY, HILL & CO. are "suits."

"Lye" makes "us" tender.

HERE IS THE REGULAR

CLOTHING ADVERTISEMENT.

Rosen, Sonneman, Hilkeimer, Statement & Co., Corner Lake and Wabash.

$30 Overcoats, - Now $25 or $20.

(So easy to mark down the figures in the newspapers.)

$25 Overcoats, - - - Now $15.

(Probably they were too high at $25. That is, we couldn't get $25.)

$20 Overcoats, now $12, or $10, or $10. You see we marked these Overcoats at prices that we could not later on to advertise a "Thirty" or "Forty" per cent reduction and get in a crowd. In a Clothing Store every one is at "sea," and are at the mercy of the Dealer. There are plenty (smart fellows) "whose" counts used to wash sheep, and they know it all, of course. WILLOUGHBY & HILL sell the BEST goods they can find for all they are worth, but for "NO MORE" than they are worth. Their goods are "new," the latest—the VERY LATEST. Anything you buy of them compare with all others, and if you think best so to do return them to us if not injured and we will cheerfully return the money paid. The first house in Chicago that offered these terms—15 years ago—and called it Square Dealing.

Importers and Manufacturers.

We beg leave to announce to the public that our stock of HIGH-CLASS SEALSKINS and PURE FASHIONABLE FURS for season 1886-'87 is now complete, consisting of everything in FUR. FURS, SEAL GARMENTS in all our new designs. Seal Hats, Caps, Gloves, and Muffs for Ladies and Gentlemen. We have the FINEST stock of FUR TRIMMING in the city. Mink and Blue in all the new styles in natural furs, including many foreign novelties. ROBES, Bear, and Mats in great variety. GENTS' FUR COLLARS AND CUFFS, adjustable or put on to order. Men's Fur Overcoats, all kinds, too many to mention. Repairs and alterations perfectly executed, and prudent people will take a hint, others will not ask about Furs till next fall. In the language of one of our enterprising neighbors, we wish to state that we do not sell FURS 25 per cent less than anyone—or at half prices. This way of humbugging the public is "A CHESTNUT." We manufacture and sell the best only. We are customers to no one. We do not believe in buying the good will of RETIRED MERCHANTS. We propose making our own good will and trade on our merits, by courteous treatment, true justice to all, and by the superior quality of our productions. The liberal patronage we have enjoyed the past three years in Chicago proves to us that the LADIES of Chicago and vicinity, and the fur-consumers generally, will buy the BEST fur if they know just where to get the article desired. We made a move to Dearborn-st., which is in my opinion of the best shopping section of the city. No street-cars in the way of carriages. Here we invite the public to a visit of inspection. Catalogues free. Very respectfully,

FALL OPENING

—AT THE—

BEE-HIVE,

172, 174, 176 & 178 STATE-ST., directly opposite the Palmer House Entrance.

The Proprietors of the Bee-Hive, their efficient corps of buyers, and heads of departments have been working zealously for more than three months in order to make this, their Fall Opening, the Greatest Success yet known in the Dry Goods and Millinery Trade. It has been our aim to make our Opening not merely an

EXHIBITION OF NOVELTIES,

But to place before our patrons at once early in the season the most desirable goods AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE FIGURES. As heretofore, the MILLINERY DEPARTMENT will be found the most complete west of New York City, deserving of the title,

THE LEADING MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE NORTHWEST.

OUR CLOAK AND SUIT DEPARTMENT

Has been doubled in size, and the assortment of styles, ranging as they do from the Lowest Grade to the Very Finest, is unequaled; while our prices are absolutely beyond competition. In accordance with an established custom we shall offer TOMORROW

UNAPPROACHABLE BARGAINS

In Every Branch of our Vast Establishment, with an object to induce our patrons to make a tour through the Bee-Hive and profit by making purchases in the various Departments.

Ladies residing in the suburbs who visit the city but seldom will find it advantageous to visit us Tomorrow, or any day this week, because they have now an opportunity to select from the Most Complete Stock.

You will do well to come in the morning and avoid the afternoon rush, and if you do come in the afternoon we ask in advance your indulgence. It is really impossible for us to engage a salesperson for every customer we may expect; if we should attempt to do this we would require more room, expenses would be considerably increased, and we would not be able to sell so marvelously cheap. PLEASE BEAR THIS IN MIND.

This Sale is not confined to Monday only. The quantities of the Bargains offered are very large, and new attractions will be added daily.

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT THE

BEE-HIVE,

172, 174, 176, and 178 STATE STREET,

LEADING MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE NORTHWEST.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT AND FAITHFUL ATTENTION.

AN AUTOCRATIC HARTFORD.

Gale Quickly Gets Control of Some Republican Machines.

Charles Dudley Warner in His Study—The Career of the Boss—A Talk with Him and Several Successful Men—The Fundamental Principles of Executive Vandalism—The Cost, and Cottage-Home Aristocracy—Other Bosses.

Of course the most enthusiastic of the Republican orators in the State would not come to Hartford to the Capital of Connecticut to get the news of the Democratic Convention, so there was not much written about it at Chicago, and not many words were used in describing it.

The newspapers and the orators in favor of Democratic success in the State have come to the conclusion that the Democratic Convention was even fifteen minutes in session. Dr. Charles Dudley Warner's address and those of other prominent Democrats in the literary world are to this knight. Mr. Warner has one of his characteristic articles, which is as follows:

The Boss—Hartford is of the solid and conservative character which is supposed to accompany honest and intelligent prosperity of the business town. It is not very enterprising, and not very fast, as to men and methods. Its moss-grown walls, its elms and shades, its many old and comfortable houses, its quiet streets, its air of leisure, its absence of the bustle of business, its general aspect of a place where people live and do not merely work and get rich, are all characteristic. Its people are also of this character, and other.
